Just print this card out (preferably on a heavy weight paper to help endure year round usage), then fold it in half and slide it into your wallet or purse. You'll be ready at a moments notice to figure out what is playing at the local cinema and perhaps take that special someone. Also use it to impress acquaintances who have to fumble with their phones to try and find the info.

Our research team has worked over time to ensure that all the movies are included. But we're not perfect, so if you can add movies to the back or change dates as the studios shift dates pretty often.

Please enjoy the 2018 Movie Geek Reference Card and make sure to tell your friends about it. Forward them this pdf. Or send them to www.moviegeekcard.com so they can download their very own.
